At various times in my life as a teacher and as a parent I have lamented the fact that the New Testament contains very little commentary on childhood or adolescence; usually when I have run out of answers in the ‘how to parent playbook’. A few weeks ago I was reminded of this when reading a recent stimulus paper from the Catholic Education Office titled, Children Close to the Mystery of God. In this edition of our Newsletter when we are celebrating the announcement of our 2016 student leaders and look forward to the many opportunities for new growth that will come our way in the year ahead the following excerpt from the stimulus paper reminds us how fortunate we are to be involved in the lives of the young.

There are no extended reflections on childhood in the gospels, yet a number of moments are recorded in which we are struck by Jesus’ view of children. He sees children as recipients and models, and even the measure of the Kingdom.

In the Gospel of Mark the disciples attempt to dismiss children from their presence because they see the children as intruding. But Jesus welcomes the children affirming that “the Kingdom of God belongs to them” (Mk 10.13-16) — they are the ones most receptive to the gift of God. Immediately, he insists that the disciples should see children as models of a disciple’s relationship to the Kingdom, models of how to receive the love of God: “whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.” In their openness and trust, they offer us a glimpse of what it is to be open to God.

As we look towards 2016 we do so with renewed hope because of the gifts that our new leaders bring to their roles. We wish them well and pledge our support for them as they help shape another great year in the life of our community.

Best wishes for the two weeks ahead.

“When I was a kid, I used to be a class clown. I just loved making people laugh. Teachers would tell me that I needed to grow up. But I had a better idea. Why don’t I choose a job where I can act like a kid and make jokes for a living!” — Oliver Phommavanh

Oliver is a young Thai-Australian writer for children. He has featured on panels at the Sydney Writers’ Festival among many other appearances at festivals and writing events as well as in blogs. He has worked as a primary school teacher and now spends his time writing and sharing his writing passion with kids and engaging them with humour. He’s also a stand-up comedian and has appeared on national TV and radio as well as a number of well-known comedy venues such as the Comedy Store in Sydney. His first book, Thai-riffic! was published in June 2010 to critical acclaim, followed by Con-nerd in 2011, Punchlines, Thai-no-mite! and Stuff Happens: Ethan. Scrabble Tournament Fundraiser

I am Mark Stewart, a Year 11 student and I hosted a scrabble tournament in Week 3 at lunch time in the Senior School Library. Scrabble was open to all students and staff over the week. We had a number of students who participated daily.

Mr. Schumacher donated prizes as this was a special tournament to help find a cure for prostate cancer. I successfully raised $68. I wanted to do this as it is my final year at Cabra and I know that Cabra is a very caring community. I’m hoping this is my lasting legacy at Cabra as my mother went to Cabra and worked on the community newsletter and my Uncle’s hat is in the Cabra Museum. I’m going to leave with this memory and am hoping people will also remember me for this.

Cabra Chess Team

On Monday October 26, a team of four Cabra chess players competed in the South Australian State Super Finals. The team consisted of Jack C, Donya E, Akshobhya P and myself. In the secondary competition, Cabra came 3rd, after a Pushkin Russian School, and Tyndale Christian School. Donya won the Best Girl Player award, and both Akshobhya and Shaun won distinction awards.

Although we didn’t win, we all had a great day: We met new people, we tried our best and we all got ice-creams at the end. It was a day well spent, doing something that we all enjoy.

Music Showcase

Last Thursday night, the Cabra community was treated to a variety of ensembles in St Dom’s Hall. The audience enjoyed the Beginner Drum Corps first public performance supported by the Junior and Senior Drum Corps. For regular Cabra concert goers, it was an opportunity to see how the ensembles have progressed during the year. It is a joy to observe students’ developing confidence, guided by our outstanding and dedicated team of Ensemble Directors. Thank you to the following ensemble directors and accompanist: Tamra McDonald, Russell Burton, Saz Burton, Rob Boundy, Renee Donaghe, Sam Cagney, Peter Raidel and Ian Blake.

As has become a nice tradition, there was the official presentation and handover to our 2016 Music Captains and Vice Captains. We were very excited and pleased to announce that our Music Captains for 2016 are Alexandra Dobson & Oscar Robertson. Supporting them in the role of vice captains are Bridie Greene & Lachlan Symonds. Finally, the night concluded with a rendition of Another Brick in the Wall from our year 12 students.

Spring Chamber Concert

It was a lovely warm, sunny afternoon and our stunning Cabra Chapel was the venue for our Spring Chamber Concert. The small ensembles, Cabra Chorus and Festival Choir enjoyed the delightful acoustics of the chapel. Thank you to the wonderful support of Julian Ferreretto (strings), Angela Turner (wind), Ben Parkin (guitars), Ian Boath (brass) and Saz Burton (choirs).

Calendar of Events

Please continue to check the calendar of events updated in each newsletter, your emails, information from Ensemble Directors and the music notice board located just outside the Music Office for detailed information regarding upcoming events.

‘tis the season to think of others...

...as we support the work of St Vincent de Paul through our donation of items for their Christmas Hampers

As you will be aware, Cabra Celebrates is to be held on Monday 7th December. It is an event our community looks forward to, as it is a celebration of all that we have shared and accomplished together during the year, and it is a time that we can wish the families of our school community well for the Festive Season.

During the Festive Season we are also asked to remember those who are less fortunate than we are; for many, Christmas is a difficult time. We have the opportunity to support those people in our local community who are in need, and offer this support in light of Jesus’ call to care for our neighbours.

As has become our custom, we invite each family who is coming along to Cabra Celebrates to bring with them a donation which we will pass on to the St Vincent de Paul Society who will distribute our gifts to families before Christmas through their Christmas Hampers.

We have received special requests for:

Gifts for a range of ages:
- including Age 10+, and Mums and Dads.

Hamper food:
- particularly something which could grace the Christmas table.

Christmas paper, gift card
- to wrap the gifts received.

We request that gifts are unwrapped. Any wrapped gifts are opened and checked. Please see list of gift suggestions opposite.

There will be a collection point in the Convention Centre foyer on the evening. We thank you in anticipation of your continued care for those in our wider Adelaide community.

If your family is not attending Cabra Celebrates, please still feel able to contribute to our gifts. You will be able to drop a present or non-perishable food item into Reception in the next two weeks.

Last year’s Cabra Celebrates Christmas Collection was very successful. St Vincent de Paul was most grateful for our donations and touched by our community’s generosity. We wish everybody a wonderful Festive Season!

Thank you in anticipation.

Yours sincerely, Ms O’Donnell on behalf of the Social Justice & Ethos Committees

Deputy Principal Middle School Update

What a pleasure it is to stop, set aside some quiet time and escape from the rigidities and structure of our day-to-day lives to reflect upon what is happening to us, what is going on around us and look to find some meaning out of it. Last Wednesday and Thursday our Year 9 students, along with a variety of staff, ventured to the Adelaide Sailing Club to participate in a Dominican Reflection Day.

It was terrific to be a part of and the Year 9’s certainly embraced what the days offered. I believe all that attended sincerely appreciated the work of Ms Fiona Graff and Ms Sarah Russell who planned, organised and helped coordinate the 2 days. A special thanks must also go to a number of Year 9 teachers who helped lead the activities and provided a fun, relaxing atmosphere during each day. Thank you also to all the students and families that attended our Sports Evening and Music Showcase last Thursday night. Both events were a sensational opportunity to recognise the talented students we have at Cabra.

One of our Middle School Captains, Sarah, approached me wanting to write something for the newsletter about a guest speaker she, along with her peers from Year 9, had the privilege of listening to last week. We are fortunate to have people come to the college and speak with our students occasionally. While the message the students listened to last week was one that they have heard from me, other teachers and parents, hearing a personal story from someone else they are not familiar with can resonate with the students just a little bit more sometimes. You can read Sarah’s report on Page 7.

Have a great fortnight

Kind regards

Jason Thur, Deputy Principal – Middle School

Year 9 Dominican Reflection Day – Student Comments

- The day was ran smoothly and was enjoyable, I felt I was able to connect and understand more about faith and what it means to me. The day allowed me to stop and reflect on my whole Cabra experience, not only this year. It has made me realise how lucky I am to attend school here and the work I want to put in making my remaining years unforgettable. — Brianna P.

- It was the highlight of my whole year. I really respect all the teachers for sharing their faith stories with us as it helped me find peace of mind with my own life and help me think differently about connections and faith as a connection to God in our life. The activities were a great way to help find value in life and with the people around us, especially being in the place we were. It was a memorable day being so close to God and his creations. — Jessica T

- The Year 9 Reflection day is one I will remember for many years to come. The activities were absolutely fantastic with a chance to meet and get to know more about other people. The teachers’ faith stories actually inspired me a lot and I’m a hard person to inspire. My social skills were tested in a good way. I laughed a lot and it was overall exciting. — Bailey W-L

- I am so grateful for attending the reflection day. I knew that I was going to love it and being there was more special than I could ever imagine. I really loved it because it helped me connect with my peers and teachers that I didn’t know very well. — Georgia C.
Sammy D Foundation

Report by Sarah Clarke, Middle School Captain 2015

On Wednesday the 21st September, a proud member of the Sammy D Foundation, Neil Davis; Sam’s father, spoke to the Year 9 classes and their teachers about his very loved son, Sam. Sam Davis was a 17-year-old boy from South Australia that lived and breathed sport. As Neil said to us, there was not a single sport he played that he didn’t enjoy. His whole world revolved around it, winning many awards and opportunities with his talent.

After a football game in 2008, Sam attended a party with some friends on a Saturday night. As the party got out of hand with gatecrashers, Sam’s friends became the centre of their attention. Sam was a loyal character, so he stepped in to protect his friends, but unfortunately he was punched in the back of the head, and as he fell to the ground Sam and his families’ whole life was changed forever. Sam was unable to be brought back to life after suffering severe brain damage. All parents, teachers, peers and especially his family and friends loved him, which is why it was such a shock that he passed the way he did. At his funeral, Sam and his family had 1,700 people attend the service; clearly showing how significant this loss was to so many others.

During the presentation, there were some funny memories shared by Neil about Sam, but the underlying message of the speech was the complete opposite. Neil taught all the Year 9’s the importance of responsibility that day. No matter how much of a good time you are having while you’re enjoying yourself, if things look like they’re going to get out of hand, grab your friends and leave. It takes more courage to walk away than to stay and inflame a situation. He related so well to all of us and his messages of ‘Don’t you be the idiot’ and ‘Look after your mates’ struck a chord with all who attended.

On behalf of all the Year 9 students and teachers, I would like to thank Neil for sharing a story with us that is so close to his heart. I would also like to congratulate him and his family’s success in making a change to our community to prevent troubled young children from carrying out youth violence in South Australia. Their work is absolutely inspiring.

STEMSEL project

The Year 6 students all took part in a STEMSEL workshop in their classroom last week. They were visited by Miroslav Kostecki and his team of university student mentors. These mentors assisted the students with designing and programming micro-controllers to create solutions for real life problems that can help achieve a more sustainable future. As part of their current Science unit “It’s Electrifying!” they were asked to consider the effects of global warming and renewable energy when designing their “Street Lamp Project”. The workshop covered aspects of Science, Technology, Maths, Engineering, Social Enterprise and Learning.

What is STEMSEL?

STEMSEL provides an easy to use system for coding and programming microchips. Students use the software to create micro-controllers and use these to solve problems. The STEMSEL kits come with a microcontroller board, which can be programmed via a USB cable. It also has quite a few input and output sensors and a motor. It has a built in motor driver. The students were guided by Miroslav and the mentors to program their sensors to switch lights on and off. The students look forward to participating in more of these sessions later in the term.

Year 12 Farewell

Last Friday the Year 12 students celebrated their final day of their formal secondary education at Cabra Dominican College. The day started early with the students enjoying breakfast with their individual Home Class teachers at a variety of local cafes. The formal celebration for the morning was the whole school assembly to farewell the Year 12 students. Year 12 students were processed into Caleruega Hall by the College Drum Corp. Our assembly was an extra special occasion for the students as of over 150 parents and caregivers were present. Following the assembly the Year 12 students along with their parents, caregivers and the staff gathered in St. Brigid’s Square for morning tea. At the morning tea the students were given their memoir packs which they made when they in Year 8 at Cabra and a letter from a Year 6 student wishing them well in 2016.

Directly following the morning tea the students made their way to Marion Swimming Pool for their ‘Day on the Green’ afternoon celebrations. The entire centre was booked out for the students to provide them with the opportunity to wind down and have fun before shifting their focus to their exams preparation. During the afternoon the students were provided with access to a purpose built obstacle course in the pool, the new waterslide, sumo wrestling suits, a velcro fly wall and a horizontal bungee run. The Year 12 Home Class teachers cooked a barbeque for the students. All the students thoroughly enjoyed the day’s celebrations.

Stage 2 Exams

This week the Year 12 students commenced their final Stage 2 exams which contribute to 30% of their overall assessment for the year. We wish the students the very best during their final round of assessments. The final results for the students will be released by the SACE Board electronically on the 15th of December.

Announcement of the 2016 College Captains

Over the past three weeks the Year 11 Coordinator Mrs Chris de Silva has been working through the selection process for the 2016 College Captains. Following nominations and expressions of interest received, each of the candidates were interviewed and then shortlisted in preparation for their individual speeches to the Year Level. Following the speeches the Year 11 students and the staff place their votes for the two Captains.

I am delighted to announce that Anais Stephens and William Preece will be our College Captains for 2016. Both Anais and William will have a busy schedule ahead of them next year with the combined celebrations of 130 years of Cabra Dominican College and 800 years of the Dominican Order of Preachers.

Stage One Chemistry Mole Day Celebrations

Mole Day is celebrated annually on October 23 from 6.02 am to 6.02 pm to commemorate Avogadro’s Number (6.02 x 10^23), which is a basic measuring unit in chemistry. Mole Day is celebrated in schools around the world as a way to foster interest in chemistry. Stage One Chemistry students and teachers participated in the chemistry party at Cabra Dominican College on Friday 23rd of October, with all sorts of lunch time treats such as mole-teasers, water-molen, mole-asses cookies, marsh-mole-ows and guaca-mole. We also played pin the tail on the mole, and pass the parcel, complete with mole day jokes in every layer.

Joshua B 11 Yellow was awarded the prestigious Golden Bunsen Burner for achieving the highest Cabra grade in the Australian National Chemistry Quiz. Matthew T 11 Gold also achieved a High Distinction in this quiz. It’s fantastic to see so many students keen to participate in and celebrate Chemistry. Many thanks go to Lucy Barker and Penny Broadway for organising the mole day party.
