Cabra all out 144 defeated Wirreanda High School 76. Cabra won the toss and elected to bat. After losing an early wicket the boys dug in and controlled their innings well. With most getting a start we were bowled out for 144. Jack L, with 33 was our best. Our bowling was on the mark from the start, and after 15 overs WHS were 2/32. The boys continued the pressure and finally the wickets tumbled, bowling WHS out for 76. Best Bowlers: Youssef R 3/2, Riley S 2/12, Shannon U 2/18, 1 wicket each to Pete W and Jack L. Congratulations. Next Wednesday the boys will play off in the Grand Final. Any parents wishing to come and support are welcome. All the best and good luck. Ian Bogisch: Coach.

Defeated Cornerstone College 119—102. Well done Angus P our top scorer (52 n/o) for the day. Kevin P was our top wicket taker with 3/9. The boys will now play in the Knockout Grand Final next Wednesday—Good Luck lads!

Cabra has been bundled out of the SAPSASA Cricket Tournament with a loss to Mitcham Primary by 40 runs. Mitcham made 114 with Liam Westdijk taking 5/11 in a terrific bowling performance, well assisted by some outstanding catches from Hugo Keeley and Amelia Rault who impressed with her 3 overs finishing 1/11. Cabra’s top order struggled with the bat with two unfortunate run outs making the task of chasing down 114 very difficult from 25 overs. Zac Campbell made a wellCompiled 15 to be our leading batsman on the day. Better luck next year! Mr Rob Jarrad.

In another stunning carnival of Swimming, Cabra performed extremely well placing 4th with virtually only the U14 age group represented. Led by Sarah Clarke in the U16’s taking out the Div 1 50M Breaststroke and Freestyle events, Cabra placed 3rd in the 100M Open Medley Relay and took 2nd place in the U14 4 x 50M Freestyle Relay. Kimberley Symonds placed 1st in the U14 50M Breaststroke, Ruby M 3rd in the Div 3 50M Freestyle and Div 3 50M Backstroke while Emma H, swimming outside her age group, finished 3rd in the U14 Div 1 50M Freestyle event. A special thank you to the parents who supported on the night and to Sport Captain, Lachlan Eichner for his assistance as an official. Congratulations to all the girls who represented Cabra in fine fashion; Sarah C, Alex B, Hannah H-T, Ruby M, Elijah D K, Kimberley S and Emma H. Mr Rob Jarrad: Swimming Coordinator.
It was an exciting morning of swimming on Tuesday 15th March when Cabra competed in the SACSSS swimming competition at the Magill Uni Campus Pool. Without any U10’s and only two U11 swimmers Cabra performed well to finish 5th overall with some terrific results in our U12’s and Senior age groups. A highlight of the event was Cabra’s dominance in the 25M Backstroke, winning both the U12 and Senior Division B and C events. The event was capped off with a stunning U12 4 x 50M Freestyle Relay win by Keenan G, Olivia C, Ellie L and Emma H. Individual highlights included; Anastasia W—1st U12 25M Backstroke Div C, 1st—U12 25M Breaststroke Div C; Grace A—1st Snr 25M Backstroke Div C; Keenan G—1st U12 50M Freestyle Div A; Sam A—1st U11 25M Freestyle Div C; Charli D—1st Snr 25M Backstroke Div B and Olivia C—U12 25M Backstroke Div B. Well done all. We also had three students compete for City South in the SAPSASA Carnival this week. Well done to Keenan G, Grace A and Hugo K. Mr Rob Jarrad & Ms Katherine Perkas.
