Welcome to Term 2
A special welcome home and congratulations to our travelling musicians after their recent visit to the United States. We extend a heartfelt thanks to the staff, families, friends and local businesses who supported this trip of a lifetime.

Congratulations also to Maddie Terrell from last year’s Year 12 cohort who was recently awarded the 2015 University of Adelaide Principals’ Scholarship to Adelaide University. In her role of School Captain, Maddie was an excellent ambassador for Cabra and we were thrilled to hear the she was the recipient of this prestigious scholarship.

Dominican visitors from Indonesia

Earlier this week we were delighted to welcome a group of colleagues and students who are visiting from four Dominican schools in Indonesia. For most of our visitors this is their first trip overseas and they are keen to experience life in Adelaide and an Australian Dominican college. Of course this experience would not be possible without the generosity and welcome extended by our host families who have invited the students into their homes. As you can imagine, while the school activities and sightseeing are important, being hosted and cared for by an Australian family is an incredibly special experience in itself. Thank you to the families who have opened their homes to our guests.

Years of Hospitality

Hosting our most recent visitors we are reminded that extending and receiving hospitality has always been an important part of the Dominican and indeed Christian way of doing things. In St Dominic’s case we know that he travelled extensively throughout Europe (on foot!) relying upon local communities and sometimes strangers to provide him with accommodation and sustenance. We also know that a visit from Dominic was a source of joy for the hosts as he joined in their celebrations and community events.

In the gospel accounts of Jesus’ life, people offering hospitality were sometimes unlikely hosts. As we know from a few of the accounts the travelling Jesus not only accepted their hospitality, he also used the simple gesture of sharing a meal with people to provide a radical example of a better way to live. As we commence a new decade of education at Cabra it is an exciting prospect to be launching into a new relationship with our Indonesian friends and colleagues. We hope that through the simple act of visiting each other and learning from our shared experience that we will play a part in deepening the relationship between our two countries.

Building Project

After experiencing a few unexpected delays in gaining the requisite approvals we are finally ready to commence building. In case you missed the news last year, this project will provide the following improvements to our facilities.

- Ten new, state of the art classrooms
- A purpose built centre for the St Mary’s Unit and the Learning Support Centre
- A combined library and related services hub

Given the scale and location of each of the three stages, construction will occur throughout the remainder of the year.

Winter Sport

Best wishes to all of our students participating in the winter sports program that commences this weekend. May you enjoy the weekly competition and the company of friends and coaches.

Changes to volunteer police checks
The Catholic Church in SA has recently foreshadowed changes to some of the arrangements relating to police checks for volunteers. These changes are consistent with moves across South Australia to align the police check process more closely with recommendations arising from the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse.

While the Catholic Archdiocese of Adelaide’s Police Check Unit (PCU) will still manage the police check process, some of the changes, effective from 1 May, include:
- Sourcing a Working With Children Check through the SA Government’s Department for Families and Social Inclusion (DFSI);
- A streamlined and simpler application process;
- The opportunity for volunteers to volunteer on 7 occasions per year without the requirement for a police check (where the volunteering does not include excursions or overnight stays);
- No requirement for children under 18 years of age to hold a check;
- The provision of a convenient wallet-sized clearance card as distinct from a clearance letter

If you have any questions or require further information with regards to police checks as a volunteer, please contact either Carol Clifford or Amber Booth via email:

2015 Long Tan Youth Leadership
The 2015 ADF Long Tan Youth Leadership and Teamwork Award Recipient for Year 10
The ADF Long Tan Youth Leadership and Teamwork Award recognises students who demonstrate leadership and teamwork both within the school and the broader community. Recipient’s display strong values such as doing one’s best, respect for others and “mateship” that are integral to Australian society. The establishment of the ADF Long Tan Youth Leadership and Teamwork Awards is an initiative of the Australian Government designed to encourage senior students, tomorrow’s leaders, to actively participate in the life of their schools and local communities. The awards are open to all schools in Australia with students enrolled in Years 10 or 12.

I am delighted to have had Natassia Messent as our Year 10, 2015 recipient for this award. Natassia has demonstrated outstanding leadership skills in her role on the College Student Council. She has also excelled in both her personal sporting and academic pursuits and has been an outstanding role model for the students of the college.

University of Adelaide Principals’ Scholarship
Founded in 1874, the University of Adelaide is Australia’s third oldest university and the first to be established in South Australia. The first Vice-Chancellor of Adelaide, Dr Augustus Short, was elected to his role in December the same year however Dr Short’s contribution to the University and Adelaide more broadly was far beyond his capacity as Vice-Chancellor and later Chancellor. Dr Short championed the value of education, and it was Dr Short who first seriously proposed that the colony of South Australia required a higher standard of education in the form of a university. The University of Adelaide was founded with a noble goal: to prepare for South Australia young leaders shaped by education rather than by birth or wealth. This goal underpins the key purpose of the Principal Scholarships which the university offers each year to graduating Year 12 students from across the state of South Australia as well as the Northern Territory and Broken Hill.

At the end of each academic year the University of Adelaide invites school principals to nominate candidates for the Principals’ Scholarships at the University of Adelaide, against a set eligibility criteria. In making their nominations, principals take into account candidates’ academic potential as well as their contribution to school life and to the wider community.

The scholarship provides an allowance to assist with education/living costs for the first year of the student’s study.

Cabra’s recipient of the 2015 Principal’s Scholarship was Madison Terrell who was also one Cabra’s College Captains last year.
I attended the award ceremony on Friday afternoon to formally congratulate Madison on her outstanding achievement. Madison is studying a double degree in Law and Advance Economics.

Digital Technology and Cyber Safety
At Cabra Dominican College we focus on educating the whole person with the view to nurture and develop their unique gifts. An integral part of this process is to provide our students with opportunities to develop an understanding of their personal digital footprint as well as the importance of utilising the broad range of digital technologies which they have at their disposal in a responsible and effective manner.

Students across the globe have access to and are accessible by many millions of people worldwide via the vast array of websites, applications and online-games. The unprecedented amount of personal information available on these sites makes them a perfect place for people who might identify their victims and gain their trust. Other identified dangers include exposure to inappropriate content, cyber bullying and harassment, exchange of inappropriate images and identity theft. Teens are often not aware that their words or photos, which may have been intended for a small audience, sometimes find their way to a larger one, often with both the unexpected and undesirable consequences.

The college will run a series of presentations later this term by Susan McLean. Susan is a leading Cyber Safety Educator who is regularly sought to provide advice and assistance to a wide range of diverse organisations including, state education departments/sectors, elite sporting bodies, adolescent psychologists, child protection agencies and medical practitioners. Susan has also appeared on a range of national television shows including ‘Insight’, Four Corners, Sunrise, State Focus and Today Tonight. She also regularly provides expert comment in print and online media.

Susan will be presenting at Cabra Dominican College in Week 9 of this term:

Thursday 30 June
• Years 6 to 7 — Susan McLean Cyber Safety Seminar (B1&2)
• Parent Information Evening: 7.00 – 8.30pm: Susan McLean

Friday 1 July
• Years 8 to 9 — Susan McLean Cyber Safety Seminar (B1&2)

Correction
We wish to apologise for the incorrect information published in Issue 5, Term 1, Friday 8th April on page 3.

In the Teaching and Learning Update, there was a student article written by Joshua W-L (12B) stating he was studying politics at Flinders University, where in fact the study was undertaken at the University of Adelaide.
We apologise for any inconvenience and thank you for your understanding.
Connectedness

One of the key things for young people today is their sense of ‘connectedness’. Research suggests that when adolescents have a strong sense of belonging and connectedness with their environment and others, their wellbeing is enhanced. They are more likely to develop skills that enable them to thrive and flourish and strengthen their own identity through their interactions with others. Given that students spend 5-7 years of their life at Cabra, highlights the powerful significance of our school environment on their overall development.

A ‘sense of belonging’ can sound a little wishy-washy and intangible, however, our own personal experience of ‘home’ starts to emphasise the powerful impact this can have on an individual. Recently in my Year 12 Religion class, I asked students to think of what came to mind when they thought of the word ‘home’. Once we got through the obvious words...food, food and food...I heard; safe, comfortable, trust, and ‘I can be myself’. In essence, “connectedness-the sense of caring for others and being cared for, is one of the most powerful protective factors in mental health” (mindmatters.edu.au).

At Cabra we aim to provide a place where all students can feel confident, comfortable and connected. Whilst offering a variety of formal and informal learning experiences, I would like to highlight the powerful impact of presence.

Being present all day, every day, enhances a sense of belonging. Daily attendance not only enriches and enables a young person’s learning experience, it provides multiple opportunities each day to connect with others. This daily dialogue with others, helps young people to make sense of the world and in turn, strengthens their own identity. It helps them appreciate and understand diversity and learn how to interact positively. It enables empathy, respect and pro-social behaviours, whilst providing a sense of purpose.

In recent times, research has suggested other benefits of ‘connectedness’ for students; (Bergin & Bergin, 2009)

- Promote positive mental health
- Improve educational outcomes
- Staying at school longer
- Improved grades
- Development of positive relationships

And just like home, at times we recognise that there can be difficulties that require understanding, intervention and support. At those times, please do not hesitate to make contact with us.

ANZAC DAY COMMEMORATION

One hundred and two years ago, the bloody conflict that we know today as the First World War erupted across Europe. It lasted four long, terrible years but out of the pain and suffering, there was a new generation of heroes that emerged from Australasia. We know them today as the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps, the ANZACs.

The ANZACs have a great significance and bearing on every single one of us, they shone the light on what it meant to sacrifice one’s life for fellow men, the true meaning of mateship. Over one hundred thousand Australians died in the service of our country. It is easy to see this as just a number, but when I saw their names etched in stone on the roll of honour in Canberra, it was truly overwhelming. To know that each one of those names represented an Australian, with a family and their own story, that ended too soon.

I have no direct family connection to the great ANZAC legend. This is the case for many other Australians, seeing that a quarter of the population is born overseas and another 20% with at least one parent born elsewhere. The many people that have immigrated to our country since the two world wars did so because of the great values and lifestyle Australia offers. Just because many of us may have no direct connection to the ANZACs, it doesn’t mean that the sacrifice of many good Australians means any less to us. If it wasn’t for their incredible bravery and service of many men and women, Australia would not be the amazing country we know it as today.

Tonight and tomorrow, we will remember them. We must remember not just those that died and had their names engraved in stone, but all those that have served and suffered from the many conflicts from the Boer war to Iraq and Afghanistan. We will remember those that lived on with missing limbs, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and other terrible things that were a result of the horrors of war. Together, we will keep the great legacy of the ANZACs alive.

Community Living Week 2016

Cabra staff and students enjoyed another successful Community Living Week (CLW) in Week 11 of Term 1. CLW has a rich tradition at Cabra, allowing students and staff to experience a variety of activities over the four days and giving them the opportunity to mix with students from different home classes and year levels.

Each year, students from Years 6 to 10 have the opportunity to attend either an overnight camp or attend a daily activity of their choosing with activities tailored to suit all interests. CLW is also the time that many of our Year 11 students attend work experience, enabling them to experience life in the work force. Our Year 12 students attend retreats at four different locations throughout Adelaide taking the time to reflect and connect with others, a highlight for the students and staff alike.

Students arrived from 6am on Tuesday 12th April to board buses to their various activities – Kangaroo Island, Robe, Innes National Park and Port Hughes among others. This year we had two groups of Year 10 and 11 students travel to Melbourne for the week to soak up the culture and excitement of the big city.

We would like to thank the Cabra and Wilderness Escape staff for their expertise and leadership throughout the week and the students for their participation and enthusiasm!

As always, we would love to hear your feedback. Please email any comments or suggestions to clw@cabra.catholic.edu.au
Two groups of Year 10 and 11 students flew off to take on Marvellous Melbourne! The trip was exciting and dare I say, MARVELLOUS!

Whilst we were essentially given an extra week of holidays, it also gave us an opportunity to connect with our peers and people we don’t normally engage with through many activities. Some highlights were,

- a WILD trip to the zoo,
- an awe-inspiring visit to the Andy Warhol and Ai WeiWei art exhibition
- and a daring trip up the Eureka sky deck where some students went the extra mile and decided to live life on THE EDGE! three metres out from the sky deck, THE EDGE lost all walls and allowed students to get a glimpse of life below. Each day we also went shopping!

We would like to extend our gratitude to the teachers who took great care of us. It was a memorable experience.

Molecular Models in 8 Science

Last term the Year 8 White science class explored the building blocks of all matter – atoms.

Students learnt about how atoms can be found as elements, in compounds or in molecules. They had fun making models of molecules using toothpicks and lollies. Some of the molecules they modelled included carboxylic acids, hydrocarbons, amino acids and esters.
