

Imagine receiving an early 2022 University offer for your dream course before July, with no strings attached...

Bond University is now accepting applications from current year 12 students via the following link - <https://apply.bond.edu.au/>

This application is completely free, will take 10-15 minutes and may eventuate with you receiving a University offer for 2022 for your first preference!

There is no obligation to accept this offer – this is just an opportunity for you to put another option on the table alongside your QTAC / SATAC etc. offers and decide later in the year.

Bond also has a range of scholarships available which I'd encourage you to have a look at.
