

EXTERNAL SIBLINGS DISCOUNT

Families with children only attending Cabra will be automatically allocated the appropriate family discount and no form is required to be returned.

This form is for families with students attending Cabra and another child or children attending a separate Catholic Parish Primary School.

The College requests your assistance with returning this form immediately.

It is important that early notification of these other students is received so they can be entered into the school database and the discount will then appear on the family account.

This information is automatically deleted at the end of each year, so is not retained from the previous year.
